To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each business customer opening an account.

What this means for you: When you open a business account, we will ask for the name, address, and other additional information that will allow us to identify the business. To verify this information, we may obtain reports from third parties, such as credit reporting agencies. We may also ask to see organization documents for your business. If your application for business credit is denied, you may be entitled to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To request the statement, please contact LEAF at: One Commerce Square, 2005 Market Street, 14th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19103, Attn: Credit Dept. within 60 days from the date you are notified of LEAF's decision. LEAF will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request for the statement.

NOTICE: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal agency that administer compliance with this law concerning this creditor are the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection, 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20006 and the Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20580.
